The Crescents work as bookends, drawing focus to the center. The Crescents here created dynamic décor at the Commerce Bank WOW awards program at Radio City Music Hall.

Here the curvilinear Crescents create a dramatic entryway. For these shapes, aluminum tub framework is bent and the fabric is shaped and pillow-cased over the frame.

Seen here at a trade booth exhibit, the Crescent is matched up with the Ellipse form; both modular shapes are versatile and innovative design elements that are available for rent or purchase.
